

A reflection for winter

In the dark, we hope for light.

In the cold, we hope for warmth.

In fear, we hope for reassurance.

In stress, we hope for rest.

In loneliness, we hope for presence.

In conflict, we hope for peace.

In winter, we hope.

In the world, we hope.

In God with us, we can find hope.

In God with us, there is hope.
