

A reflection for May

Jesus said, "I have come in order that you might have life – life in all its fullness."

What does the fullness of life bring? What do we notice in our lives just now?

The ongoing cycle of seasons in God's creation, as new life bursts and sings and glows around us.

The challenges and hopes of learning and growing, as exams and assessments and endings come along.

The joys of creativity, in music, gardens, art, crafts, writing... so many gifts being used well.

The pain of loss ... of jobs, of security, of health, of loved ones.

The busy-ness of everything, in everyday tasks, that can all be done with care and concern.

Jesus said, "I have come in order that you might have life – life in all its fullness."

What does the fullness of life bring you just now?

Whatever life brings, Jesus is there in its fullness with you, walking every step of your journey.
