MORE INFORMATION

Accessibility

All 3 churches have an induction loop system. Those with hearing aids can switch them to the "T" position.

Large print hymnbooks are available

All 3 worship spaces, and the halls at Duffus and Hopeman, have reasonable access for wheelchairs. There are disabled toilets at all three churches.

Sunday Services - these are normally around 1 hour long.

Children have the option of going out to Sunday School at Hopeman, and are offered some quiet activities in Duffus and Spynie.

Communion, also known as the Eucharist or the Lord's Supper, is celebrated at united services. The table is the Lord's Table. The words are "Come, take, eat".

Sunday School at Hopeman - all children and young people from aged 3 upwards are welcome. They meet in 2 groups.

Moray Food Bank - Food banks have been established to meet the growing number of those in need in the area. Duffus Food Bank is open on Wednesdays. Healthy, nutritious food is what people need.

Men's Group offers an opportunity for men within the community to meet once a month during the winter months for a meal and a game of pool.

The Guild - The Church of Scotland Guild is a movement within the Church of Scotland which enables both women and men to meet and share their experiences. Meetings are held on a regular basis and has speakers on a range of interesting topics. Meetings are open to everyone.

If, after church, you wait a while
Someone may greet you with a smile.
But if you rise and quickly flee
We'll all seem cold and stiff maybe.
The one beside you in the pew
Is perhaps a stranger too.
All there, like you, have fears and cares

*All of us need each others' prayers. In fellowship, we bid you meet,
With us, around God's mercy-seat*
